Hours-Police Believe Criminals "Professionals."

Three robbers entered the Hudson Thea tre in Forty-fourth street, between Sixth evenue and Broadway, last night, held up. blew open the safe in the box office, from which they stole about $2,500, representing the receipts for Saturday's matinee and evening performances. They made good their escape and their daring deed did not come to light until nearly four hours later, when the plight of the watchman was discovered by his relief.

Patrick Downis of 669 Ninth avenue, the day watchman, started to walk down the east aisle of the theatre from the otage at 8:30 o'clock, when three forms to participate in the occupation of the lifted themselves from seats and ordered to participate in the occupation of the capital.

VILLA OBEYS CARRANZA ORDER.

Will Join in Occupation of Mexico City, Say Revolutionists.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—President Car-bajal will not make any determined effort to resist the occupation of Mexico City by the Constitutionalists, it was said by members of the revolutionary agency here to-night. It was asserted at the junta that advices have been received showing conclusively that Carbajal has no inten-tion of resorting to arms to keep out the Constitutionalists.

According to the agency's calculations Carranza will have 50,000 men approach-ing close to Mexico City this week, which superior to the total strength of the remaining Federal forces. A despatch was re-ceived at the agency to-night saying that Villa had started south with his division accordance with orders sent to Villa by Carranza, and they point to Villa's obe-dience of them as conclusive proof of dience of them as conclusive proof of the falsity of reports that he is plotting to break with Carranza and set up an independent government in the north.

GIRL CYCLISTS HIT BY AUTO.

Two Are Not Hurt Seriously and Continue on Their Spin.

The Misses Van Buren, on their motorcycle, which they had been riding over Long Island during the day, were hit by an automobile driven by Bert N. Manne of 320 Union street, Brooklyn, last evening at Kenmare and Lafayette streets. Both were thrown to the ground.

Both were thrown to the ground.

The Misses Van Buren, Augusta, a clerk, and Adeline, a school teacher, both living at 428 East 164th street, arose and found that they were not seriously hurt. So they mounted their machine again and

TWELVE DROWNED ON SUNDAY OUTINGS

Father, Intently Fishing, Fails to See Child Drop Off Pier to Death.

THREE SWIMMERS SINK

Body Found Under Overturned Rowboat-Another Floating Near Beach.

Six persons met death in water ac cidents in or near New York yesterday. Three swimmers sank before rescuers could reach them; a little girl drowned while her father was intently fishing close by: a man was found dead under a rowboat, which it is believed was overturned by a ferry, and another body was found-floating off Woodlawn Beach.

"Dared" to Equal Girl Swimmer, Boy Goes to His Death.

YONKERS, N. Y., Aug. 9.—Trying to swim across the Hudson River from Alpine, N. J., to Yonkers cost fifteen-year-old Isador Weldman his life this evening. When about half way across he became exhausted and sank and did not come to the surface again. A party following him in a rowboat tried to save him, but couldn't.

Herman D. Wiedholdt of Hoboken after diving repeatedly found the body, but life diving repeatedly found the body, but life was extinct.

The boy, who lived at 178 Ashburton avenue, this city, crossed to the Jersey shore on the ferryboat Daisy. He was considered a good swimmer and had been much interested in recent cross-river swims by Dorothy Bauer, a fourteen-year-old Hastings girl, and several Yonkers boys. He boasted that he could swim the river and companions dared him to.

Just at sunset he plunged in and started the mile trip. He swam so rapidly that he quickly became exhausted and went down to death.

Saving Friend-Both Rescaed. Miss Katherine Fullock and Miss Hilda Wessman of Cedarhurst, both of them good swimmers, were bathing at Simis Beach, Far Rockaway, yesterday, when Miss Wessman was seized with a cramp. Miss Fullock went to her aid and held her up, but could not get to shore current carried them a quarter of a mile to Deb's Inlet.

Both were nearly exhausted when three young men in a motorboat saw their plight. William Scarlet of Far Rockaway tried to get the boat near the girls. When he failed his companions, Leonard Larkin of Jamaica and Lewis Herman of 412 East 162d street, the Bronx, jumped overboard after them. They got the girls to the boat with great difficulty The two girls were unconscious when they were carried to the shore. The men worked over them until an ambulance arrived from St. Joseph's Hospital. The girls were restored to consciousness

Little Girl Drowns While Father Fishes From Pier.

Johanna Ehrhardt, 4 years old, of 1432 De Kalb avenue, Brooklyn, fell off a ple from which her father, Reinhardt Ehr-hardt, was fishing in Jamaica Creek, Jamaica South, yesterday and was drowned. Ehrhardt missed her and then called for help. Boatmen found her body floating 100 feet from the dock.

Youth Drowns as 500 Looks On-Friend Fails to Save Him. William Cohen, 20, of 204 East Twenty fifth street, Manhattan, was drowned yes-terday in Flushing Bay within sight of 500 persons, many of whom were in row-boats near by.

Cohen went bathing at Freidman's pavilion with Edward Hillman of 317 East Thirty-second street. He disappeared after swimming 100 feet. Hillman dived several times for him, but could not find him. The body was not recovered. Drowned Man's Body Found Under Overturned Rowboat.

The body of John Kaufman, 22, of 177 Chauncey street, Perth Amboy, N. J., was found under an upturned rowboat yester-day. It is believed that the boat was struck by the ferryboat which plies be-tween Perth Amboy and Tottenville. The man's foot had caught in a rope in the boat. This prevented him from getting free when the boat turned over.

Body of Youth of 19 Is Found Float ing Near Beach.

The body of an unidentified youth was picked up off Woodland Beach, Staten Island, yesterday afternoon and taken to McGinley's morgue at Stapleton. The body was clothed in a two piece gray bathing suit with a black stripe. The police and Coroner believe it is the body of a camper or some one who was visiting the camps at the beach. No one answering the deat the beach. No one answering the de-scription of the dead man has been re-ported as missing.

The body is that of a youth of about 19 years, 5 feet 6 inches in height, weight
